

ETHERIAL WINS CLOSE RACE FROM WISE MASON

Takes Rancho Del Paso Stakes by Neck in Driving Finish Under the Whip—Jimmy Lane Annexes Corinthian Open Steeplechase—Falcada Comes Under Wire First in Seven-Furlong Dash, With Fashion Plate Second.

BELMONT PARK, N. Y., October 12.—In a two-horse race Etherial won the Rancho Del Paso Stakes, which was run to-day over the six furlongs straightaway course at Belmont Park. Etherial and Wise Mason broke heads apart, but Etherial soon took a half-length advantage. They ran in this order to opposite the field stand, where Wise Mason moved up. The rest of the distance was under the whip, and in a hard drive Etherial won by a neck. Summaries: First race—malden, two-year-olds, six furlongs—Golden Legend, first; Lady Selina, second; Sententious, third. Time, 1:13 3-5. Second race—the Corinthian, open steeplechase, handicap, gentleman riders, about two and one-half miles—Jimmy Lane, first; Grandpa, second. Time, 4:39 3-5. Third race—the Rancho Del Paso, two-year-olds, six furlongs—Etherial, first; Wise Mason, second. Time, 1:12 4-5. Only two starters. Fourth race—handicap, three-year-olds and up, mile and a half—Gowan, first; Beaucoup, second; Pins and Needles, third. Time, 2:32 1-5. Fifth race—all ages, seven furlongs—Falcada, first; Fashion Plate, second; Footpad, third. Time, 1:25 1-5. Sixth race—three-year-olds and up, mile and a quarter—Milford, first; Whip Top, second; Juggler, third. Time, 2:06 1-5.

V. M. I. ELEVEN IMPROVES SLOWLY

Men Light and Green, but General Team Work Good Except for Fumbling.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, VA., October 12.—The Hampden-Sidney team presented so little opposition Saturday that it was difficult to judge of V. M. I.'s progress by their one-sided game. There was evidence of some improvement over the Saturday before both in team work and individual play, but taken as a whole the team is still green and light.

The work of McMillan at quarter was conspicuous; his improvement in one week in driving the team, in handling punts and in running back kicks was decided. His touchdown in the second half straight through the center of the Hampden-Sidney team from the kickoff was a nice bit of work.

There was still too much fumbling between the center and the quarter, and if the team is to do any consistent ground-gaining that fault must be eliminated. McLean, at full back, showed something of his old form, advancing the ball well, while his kicking of goals was a decided improvement over the Saturday before.

Patterson, at right tackle, was good in both defense and attack, he seldom failing to make ground when called upon. The general work of the team was on the whole better and the plays were gotten off in more snappy style, but the ball was lost too often on fumbles and went over entirely too frequently on downs in a game against such a weak team. Besides, V. M. I. deserved too many penalties, the referee was repeatedly leading a procession with the ball under his arm toward V. M. I.'s goal. This will be a serious business if it happens in a big game.

The easy part of V. M. I.'s schedule is now behind. St. John's, of Annapolis, plays in Lexington on October 17th.

Y. M. C. A. CLASSES DOING GOOD WORK

Many Gymnasium Squads Take Regular Exercise—Basketball and Indoor Baseball Popular.

At the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium the fall schedule is well under way, the work is going on smoothly and without any unnecessary friction.

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 6:15, the Young Men's Evening Class of from twenty-five to forty members meets. On Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6 o'clock a class is held for students of the medical and business colleges.

The Young Men's Graded Classes, for gymnasium work, bring out about half a dozen squads of men and boys. As soon as a member of one of the lower graded classes is fitted for more advanced work, he is transferred to a higher class.

On Thursday nights, from 8:30 to 10, calisthenic drills are given, and the remainder of the evening is devoted to open games of basketball and indoor baseball.

The Y. M. C. A. does not neglect the needs of the business men, for on Wednesday of this week, at 4:30 in the afternoon, a special business men's class for men twenty-five years of age and over will be inaugurated. This class will meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings for a period beginning at 5:30 and lasting till 6:15, and during this period the gymnasium will be reserved for their exclusive use.

There are open periods of individual games and exercises on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons, and open games of basketball are played on Wednesday evening at 6:30 and Saturday evening at 6:15.

Next November the championship basketball league will be formed, made up of teams from the Y. M. C. A., who will play a regular schedule of games for the championship of the organization. Candidates for the senior basketball team will be tried out on Wednesday evenings, and the prospects are good for a first-class team to represent the Y. M. C. A. against other basketball organizations. A limited schedule with outside teams will be arranged. Randolph-Mason has already asked for a game, and it is possible that two contests with them—one in Ashland and a return game here—may be scheduled.

A feature of the gymnasium work, which will be of great value, is the purchase of a double single-oared rowing machine, which will be installed as soon as delivered. By means of this machine members of boat crews can keep in good rowing form throughout the entire winter.

The men are using the outdoor athletic grounds, adjoining the Y. M. C. A. building, every evening until dark for volleyball, medicine ball and indoor baseball are extremely popular; in fact, indoor baseball is giving basketball a close run. The two games are rivals, and each has a big following.

The boys, too, have an elaborate schedule of games and classes. The younger boys, those between the ages of twelve and fifteen years, have classes on Monday and Wednesday evenings at 4 o'clock, and Saturday mornings at 11:15. The older boys, those between fifteen and seventeen years of age, have classes Tuesday and Thursday at 4 o'clock in the morning and Saturday mornings at 11:15.

Special classes have been arranged for boys who work during the day, meeting Monday and Friday nights from 8 to 9 o'clock. The boys in the night school, being unable to attend the regular gymnasium exercises, are given a series of calisthenic and deep-breathing exercises on each class night about midway of their session.

There are two classes for the gymnasium leaders corps, the senior class meeting on Monday nights at 8:30 to 10 and the junior class every Friday evening from 3:30 to 5. The members of these classes help in the general class work as leaders in drill exercises.

GLOTH'S RETURN STRENGTHENS VA.

Star Centre's Belated Appearance Fills Varsity with Joy—Eleven Shows Great Improvement.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 12.—There is much joy in the football camp at the University of Virginia to-day over the return of "Bill" Gloth, captain of the varsity team, who put in his appearance unexpectedly late yesterday afternoon. The news spread rapidly throughout college, and was hailed with delight by the student body.

Gloth was the mainstay of the Virginia line for two years, putting up such a star game that he was given a place on the All-Southern team by the critics. He is an all-around player, full of dash and vim and so valuable on the defensive that very few plays are sent over him. On the offensive, he is among the first to get down the field, frequently tackling the runner ahead of his ends, and whenever there is a fumble, he is very apt to be found on top of the ball.

At the opening of the season, when it was announced that Gloth had entered a law office at his home in Erie, Pa., and would not return to college, there was much disappointment in local football circles. Many believed, however, that he would return before the season was in advanced, and never once did his intimate friends let up on him. Letters were sent to him almost every day begging him to return to the aid of his Alma Mater.

Gloth's return will strengthen the team perhaps 25 per cent. The line showed up woefully weak in the early games, but there was much improvement during the past week. In the Davidson contest there was almost an entire reversal of form, the men charged well and followed the ball consistently. With Gloth back in his old position at center, Holladay will probably be shifted to guard, where he played a good game last season.

On the present varsity team there are now six members of last year's eleven—Gloth, Holladay and Wellford, in the line, and Houaker, Neff and Yancy, in the back field.

Head Coach Cooke, who has been spending several days at New Haven, looking into the system of alumni coaching in vogue at Yale, has returned and assumed charge of the team. "Bob" Williams, of Roanoke, who rendered such valuable aid to the team just before the game with Davidson, has returned home. It is hoped that he will be able to return to the university the next autumn. All the college athletes are working hard at the work he has done for the team.

GOOD RACING AT WASHINGTON SHOW

Bennings Track Scene of Enthusiasm—Some Splendid Ring Performers Exhibited.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 12.—Some of the best bred horses of show ring fame met in competition to-day in the first annual meeting of the Washington Horse Show and Racing Association, at Bennings. Ideal weather prevailed, and society was well represented in the clubhouse and about the ring.

The racing, however, aroused more enthusiasm than the display in the ring. There was one accident, Joe E. Davis, a former Senator, was hurt while showing his hunter, Rising Star. The horse refused at the first hedge and crashed into the fence, throwing Mr. Davis heavily, but his injuries are not serious. Winners in the horse show were as follows:

Class 20—Qualified hunters to hounds—Thomas J. Ferce's Red Raven, first; Edwin H. Weatherbee's David Gray, second; Westchester Farms, Middlethorpe, third.

Class 32—Best pair of match-horses shown to a vehicle—Garber & Garber's pair of chestnut geldings, first; Byers Brothers & Koon's Times and News, second; Hales & Sons Quick and Lively, third.

Class 15—Saddle horses—Mrs. Allen Potts's Monstone, first; E. H. Weatherbee's Keawick, second; Hales stable Noble Xerox, third.

Class 1—For harness and under saddle—Edwin H. Weatherbee's Irish Rose, first; J. W. Carter's Robin Adair, second; Herman E. Ullman's Lord Golden, third.

There were four races on the card, three on the flat and a steeplechase. Woods Garth, the Virginia trainer, won three of the four events. In the steeplechase Warrenton and Imperfence fell, making it easy for Rye Day to win from Helen Shea, the only other starter.

The betting was done on the oral wager plan, and speculation was bright.

First race, six furlongs—Flat Creek (even) first, Ogema (7 to 10) place, second; Ed Shuster (out, show) third. Time, 1:17 3-4.

Second race, seven furlongs—Trey of Spades (10 to 1) first, Alauda (8 to 5, place) second, Giles (out, show) third. Time, 1:28 1-5.

Third race, mile and seventy yards—Wild Refrain (even) first, Gowanok (8 to 5, place) second, New Garter (2 to 5, show) third. Time, 1:47 4-5.

Fourth race, about two miles, steeplechase—Rye Day (4 to 5) first, Helen Shea (even, place) second, Warrenton (out, show) third. Time, 4:20.

TIGERS DOWN CUBS IN THIRD CONTEST

fine rally, came from behind and put the game safely away.

Mullin, the first man up, walked. McIntyre singled to left and O'Leary laid down a nice hit, which filled the bases, as Pfeister failed to catch Mullin at third. With none out the Michigan contingent cheered wildly as Crawford came to bat. The sturdy center fielder swung viciously, driving down a grounder which was too hot for Chance to hold. While Chance was whirling frantically around seeking the ball Mullin crossed the plate and the other runners advanced a base each.

The fleet Cobb beat out his slow bounder to Tinker and McIntyre scored. Rossmann singled to right, scoring O'Leary and Crawford, while Cobb made the out from first to third. Hoffman captured Schaefer's fly to center, and with a perfect throw caught Cobb at the plate. Thomas doubled to right, scoring Rossmann, but Evers threw Coughlin out at first.

Pfeister held the Detroit batters in the seventh, but he was pounded hard again in the eighth.

Cobb hit to left for two bases. Rossmann beat out a pretty bunt, sending Cobb to third. Schaefer flew out to right, and Rossmann moved up to second on Schulte's throw to the plate, holding Cobb at third. Thomas walked, filling the bases. Cobb scored on Coughlin's out to Sheppard. Mullin hit safely to Chance, scoring Rossmann.

How Chicago Scored. The story of Chicago's scoring is not a long one, although it looked in the fourth inning as if the World's Champions were going to make it three straight. After striking out Sheppard Mullin gave Evers his base on balls, and the little second baseman, being caught off first by Mullin, raced to second, safing on Rossmann's high heavy Schulte fouled out, but Chance singled scoring Evers. Chance stole second and came home when Coughlin made a bad throw of Steinfeld's grounder. Steinfeld scored Chicago's third and last run on Hoffman's line drive over Coughlin's head for three sacks.

President C. W. Murphy, of the Chicago club, remained in his office throughout the game, owing to a severe cold. He stated that he would not accompany the team to Detroit to see the games to-morrow and Wednesday, as he had advised him to cure his present indisposition before further exposing himself.
